§ 78102. Guam Ecology Corps: Creation.

There is hereby created within the territory of Guam, a Guam Ecology Corps which shall be governed by a Guam Ecology Council consisting of five (5) members who shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Legislature. A Chairman shall be selected by a majority of the membership of the Council. Members shall represent the community at large and the Director of the Department of Land Management shall be an ex-officio non-voting member of the Council and shall serve as its secretary.

§ 78102.1 Compensation of Council.

Every member of the Council shall receive compensation at the rate of Fifty Dollars ($50) for each attendance at the meeting of the Council, provided, however, that no members shall receive more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) per month.

SOURCE: Added as GC §26301.1 by P.L. 16-48.

§ 78103. Recruitment.

The Guam Ecology Council shall recruit, on a voluntary basis, residents of Guam who desire to make available their services to the Guam Ecology Corps in carrying out its conservation programs.

§ 78104. Powers and Duties.

The Council shall establish programs to aid in the maintenance of a natural ecology and preservation of the beauty and natural resources of the territory of Guam. The Guam Ecology Corps shall utilize its members for the purpose of protecting the natural resources of the territory of Guam, which is included, but not limited to forest, grasses, vegetation, soil, air, water, and wildlife.

§ 78105. Rules and Regulations.

The Council is hereby authorized and empowered to establish rules and regulations for the purpose of implementing this Chapter.

§ 78106. Benefits to Corpsmen.

Membership in the Guam Ecology Corps shall be voluntary and members shall serve without pay. The only benefit extended to members of the Guam Ecology Corps shall be the right to be covered under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

§ 78107. Student Ecology Program.

(a) Notwithstanding § 78106, the Council may employ up to six hundred (600) students in grades nine through twelve for a ten week summer period at the minimum wage rate in order to further implement the purposes and goals of this Law. In addition, a cadre of up to sixty (60) students from the University of Guam may be employed to supervise and assist these high school students in the day to day activities of the Corps and
