FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 14, 2022

(Hagåtña, Guam) - Administrative Order No. ADM22-002, issued today by the Supreme Court of Guam, lifts the requirement for six-foot social distancing between individuals in the Judiciary of Guam facilities effective Tuesday, April 19, 2022. As a result, high capacity in-person proceedings in both the Superior and Supreme Courts will begin gradually returning to courtrooms in the Guam Judicial Center. Parties, attorneys, and patrons are reminded that operations within particular courtrooms are subject to the discretion of their respective judicial officers.

Masks will continue to be required while within the Judiciary of Guam facilities, but there will no longer be a requirement to wear masks while outdoors on Judiciary property.
